

Dear FCC Administrator,

I consider my phone number an important privately owned investment. I don't agree that it should in anyway be used for solicitation purposes and ask that the most stringent laws be used to prevent unsolicited caller from using it for marketing purposes.

Sincerely,

Doug Williams